FOUR OUT OF SIX BACES WON BY FAVORITES. Most of the fields at the Brooklyn course yesterday which was deep in mud and water after the heavy rains of Tuesday night. But the keen and stimulating autumn air and the bright sky brought many people to the track, and there was no lack of interest in the sport. Banner Bearer was made the favorite for the first race, had no difficulty in winning. Sorrento fancied by many, but he is always a slow and clumsy starter, and although the start was fair. Sorrento moved off so awkwardly and slowly that he could never get near the leader. The field was strung out for a long distance in the homestretch, and rrento was second with a big gap between him and Banner Bearer in front and between him and Speedwell in third place.

well in third place.

Only three ran in the second race,
Favor. Tristan and Huntress. With McLaughlin up, Favor seemed practically invincible against such opponents on such a track, and be won easily enough. Tristan and Huntress made a hot fight for the place, which Tristan secured.

Yum Yum had not been expected to start in the Oceanview Stakes for three-year-olds, but at the track it was announced that she would go to the post. Garrison had been expected to ride Montagu, and it was reported that he had backed Montagu in the city you youn. But when B. A. Haggin decided to run Yum Yum, Garrison of course could not be permitted to ride Mentagu against a horse of his own stable, although Garrison was not on Yum Yum, this filly beonging to the western division of the Haggin stable and being ridden always by Hamilton. Yum Yum was made a strong favorite, with King Crab, who was ridden by McLaughlin, second choice. But Yum Yum, with 120 pounds, proved a complete failure in the mud and did not run first, second or third, King Crab winning easily, with Montagu second and Marauder

Mr. Carsatt was present and saw his old cast off, Danner Bearer, win the first race and his colt Marauder run third for the Oceanview. For the Parkille Handicap at a mile and a furlong only three ran. Curus, Aurella and Bessie June. Eurus was the favorite at first in the betting, but so much money went on Bessle June, including a round bet made by Michael Dwyer, that Bessle June went to the post the favorite, Eurus second choice. Mr. Cassatt and his trainer, Mr. Huggins, both feared that Eurus would sulk in so small a field. Eurus did not swerve so such as usual, but he ran far below his best form, and Bessle June won without urging. Aurelia was well up with the others for three-quarters of a mile and then retired into hopeless obscurity. She came in very lame in the off fore leg and will probably not be seen again for some time. The Haggin stable is again in extremely bad luck, with the exception of its unapproachable filly Firenzi. J. E. Haggin is in Montana looking after his interests in the great copper mine there, one of the biggest and richest in the world. B. A. Haggin has not been enjoying good health of late, and has not been divided as the consultation of the track every day. He was present yesterday, however, but could have got little saitsfaction out of the racing, as toe overwheiming failure of Yum Yum and the severe lameness of Aurelia were anything but agreeable to himself and the friends of the stable. The start for the fifth race, for maiden two year-olds, was good, but Mr. Withers's Eccola filly shot away from the field so quickly that m a few strates home with none of the others near her. The public went wild on Mr. Jelmont's Forest King, who had never done anything to justify making him an extremely strong favorite in so large a field in so wild a stramble as that for maiden two-year-olds at five fullougs. He is a slow starter, like Sorrento, and the field went away from him in a bunch when the signal was given. He could never get through after that and came in in the ruck.

With four starters only in the last race, Pasha, ridden by McLaughlin, was made a strong favorite. McLaughlin, was made a strong favorite. McLaughlin, was made a strong favorite. McLaughlin do not ride Pasha with anything like his usual skill. He kept him under a pull along the had battered and lay so far behind Refund and Una R. to get too far away from him while he was pulling Pasha, and his whipping and urging did no good. It is a race thing indeed when this great lockey makes a blunder of this sort, throwing away as race by letting his only formidable adversary in a neld of three rivals get so far in front of him while he is keeping his own mount in check that he fails to catch that adversary at the finish. Even t retired into hopeless obscurity. She came in very lame in the off fore leg and will probably not be

Sorrento spoiled one good start and would have spoiled another if Mr. Caldwell had not dropped the flag before Anderson could pull up a second time. The "Spider's" capers came near getting Sorrento left at the post, the youngster being behind the entire field when the start was made. Fred B. led to the turn and was passed by Hanner Bearer, who, leaving his horses as if they were glued to the ground, won, pulled up, by four lengths. Sorrento easily disposed of the rest of the field and finished five lengths before Speciwell. Cousin Jeems, Brait, Mirabeau, King Crab and Ban Cloche did not start. FIRENZI AND KINGSTON TO MEET TO-DAY. SEVEN RACES TO BE RUN AT THE GRAVESEND

TRACK. The race for the First Special will attract a multitude to Gravesend to-day. All worthless cattle have been withdrawn from the list of nominations, leaving only the fastest filly and the fastest colt in America to race for the prize, and the duel between Firenzi and Kingston, with no rubbish to interfere with their speed, will be a noble struggle. They carry even weights under the schedule, Firenzi having the advantage of the usual sex allowance of three pounds. Murphy will ride the colt, Garrison the filly. the Dwyers and Mr. Haggin would prefer a dry, elast c track, but it is scarcely possible for sun and wind to remove all moisture from the course this forenoon. While the going will not be soft, it is certain to be stiff and somewhat holding. In the language of turfmen, it will be a dead track. No record will be broken, but it will be a royal duel between these two. In the opinion of this writer the peerless Firenzi will win, but her victory will be well earned, for she will have to do her best in order to beat Kingston who was never in better condition than he is to-day.

There are seven races on the programme, the sixth having been divided. It is about time for Britannie to bleed again, but if he doesn't do it to-day he should win the first race, Climax second.

First race at 2:15 p. m. TROTTING AT OLD POINT BREEZE. Philadelphia, Sept. 26 (Special).—Though the weather was perfect for racing, there was a falling off in the second day's attendance at Point Breeze Park this afternoon. Those who were present saw some capital sport. It took five heats to decide the issue between the fast young trotters in the 2:24 class. There was a surprise for the backers of the stallion Goldleaf in the 3:00 class. The young son of Nugget sold at odds of $30 to $25 against the field before the start, but did not win a heat. The other two regular races were not finished, two heats being disposed of in There is a big card for to-morrow. In addition to the two postponed races there are the 2:18 trot and the 2:30 pace, and a special purse for which Rosalind the 2:30 pace, and a special purse for the actional wilkes, the fast New-York mare, and the sensational Guy will trot. The track is not in condition for fast time, and it is doubtful if Guy will like it well enough to be the action of the sensation of the sensa Wilkes, the fast New-York mare, and the sensational to have any show with his steadie

TRISH CHAMPIONS LIMBERING UP. The members of the Gaelic Athletic team went to the Manhattan Athletic Club grounds yesterday to have an opportunity of straightening their muscles and limbering themselves up a little after their voyage. Many of them had not entirely got rid of their "sea legs," but after the slight exercise in which they indulged on the grounds their old vim returned. They expect to be in good trim on Saturday, when they will give their first exhibition at the Manhattan grounds. An informal reception was given them last evening at the rooms of the club. ide the Park Avenue Hotel, where they are staying. knots of persons had collected yesterday to get a glimps of the big Tipperary men.

WASHINGTONS EASILY BEATEN AT HOME. THE NEW-YORKS RETURN WITH A FIRM GRIP

ON THE PENNANT. Washington, D. C., Sept. 26 .- The New-York and Washington clubs played two games here to-day. Only one admission was charged for both games, and this inducement brought out a large crowd. In the first game the Giants won easily. Whitney was batted all over the field in the third inning, but otherwise effective, Welch pitched a steady game and was supported in the most approved style. Six clean singles and O'Rourke's two-bagger earned six runs in the third inning. In the second game, which was started after an intermission of five minutes, both clubs changed their batteries. The game, while not so well played as the preceding one, was on the whole more interesting cause of the closeness of the score. Young Keefe was a little wild, but he kept the hits well scattered except in the ninth inning, when the Glants won the game. After Murphy had been retired, Tiernan made a tremendous drive to the right field fence, and scored on Richardson's single. The latter player stole second and scored the winning run on a wild pitch.

IRISH CRICKETERS TRIUMPHANT.

NEW-YORK, AFTER A PLUCKY FIGHT, SUFFERS DEFEAT BY NINE WICKETS AND THREE RUNS.

Contrary to expectations, the international cricket natch between the New York eleven and the Gentlemen of Ireland was brought to a finish yesterday, with the result that, after a gallant up-bill fight, New-York suffered defeat by nine wickets and three cuns. As stated yesterday, Ireland on Tuesday had nade 328 runs in their first innings, leaving New-York to make up a tremendous vacancy. The close of that day's play saw Davis and Mart at the wickets in New-York's second findings, with the score at 29 for the loss of three wickets. Late in the evening rain fell somewhat heavily, making the outlook for he home team additionally gloomy. The play yes erday was characterized by the absence of Tuesday's life and vigor.

runs at a pretty rapid rate, in which they were as-disted by the rather loose and careless fielding of the Hibernians. Mart in particular played steadily its 49, in which there were seven fours and one brilliant hit over the pavilion for five. Finally he was caught by Kennedy from a ball by J. P. Fitzgerald. J. G. Davis then came on, and the score reached 24 before he was caught by J. P. Fitzgerald from a ball of Synnot's. Trees rolled by 27, and ap-peared to be well set when a shot from Johnston brought about his retirement, and New-York had reached only 110 for the loss of six wickets.

With the fall of Tyers all New-York's hopes van ished, no remaining member of the team succeeded in reaching double figures, and at 12:31 the men ere all out for 148, leaving the Irishmen just 23 to get in order to win, which they succeeded in doing inside of a quarter of an hour, and at seven minutes past 1 J. P. Fitzgerald made the winning stroke with a cut to the boundary for two. The score and analysis are as follows:

ENTERTAINING AND UNANSWERABLE

No. 106. "A Revolt from Free Trade," 4 pages, containing the remarkable facts, set forth by The Tribune recently, showing the popular defection from the ranks of the Democratic party in New-York in consequence of the Tariff issue. Good for circulation in every doubtful State, among wage-earners, farmers, clubs and business men, who have not quite made up their minds which way to vote, but who want to save their country from a general reduction of wages and returns from labor. Price, two cents a copy; 100 copies for 50 cents; 1,000 copies for $30.

No. 104. "Wage-carners Protected : The Tariff a Barrier Against Cheap Labor; Wages 100 Per Cent Higher here than in England under Free Trade."-A leaflet of four pages, in coarse type, easy to read, and of intense interest to workingmen of every occupation. A series of articles comparing wages in the United States and Europe, and showing how enormously wages have advanced under Protection, in spite of the immi gration of 9,000,000 laborers. The figures have all been obtained from official sources; and they counteract the false and ridiculous statements of the Democratic press and committees with regard to "average" wages. One of the strongest and best documents on this subject in print. Price two cents a copy; 100 copies for 50 cents; 1,000 copies for $4; 10,000 copies for $30.
